Director: Kenzhebek Shaikakov

About film

In the film, the fate of the victims of the “Semeysky test site”, which became a tragedy for all Kazakhstanis, is shown through the life of a citizen who suffered from a nuclear explosion and was born without two legs.

The director shows the human condition in the 1980s and 90s through the life of a single father who lost his wife and a boy who was able to empathize and care for his half-hearted father.

Filming of the feature film took place in the village of Shingoza, Ayagoz district, Abay district.

It should be noted that Melis, who plays the main role in the film, is not a professional actor, but Orynбек Shaimaganbetov, a Kyzylorda resident who lost both legs.

Arnur Akram, a 6th grade student at the Karasai Batyr School in Almaty Region, plays the role of Zhalgas, the son of Melis, who studies at the school.

Also in supporting roles will be famous actors Erbolat Alkozhaev, Beinur Baimukhambetov, Erlan Malaev, Aibek Imankulov, Aiganym Nursultan.
